St. Mary of Gostyn – Adult Formation – Christ Renews His Parish CRHP
Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Repent! This is a word that many of us cringe at hearing. It is a word we have come to associate with sacrifice, mortification, self-denial, and—perhaps worst of all—acknowledgment of personal wrongdoing and guilt and repentance. In a culture that promotes indulging and gratifying oneself first, this is an obstinate word that smacks of some ominous exterior infringement on the supremacy of my personal conscience or an annoying interference with my wanting to be free to choose to do as I will for myself.

If this is what repentance means to us, then it is little wonder that we question how Jesus could relate this word with his proclamation of the reign of God. But the call to repent, in today’s Scriptures, is not so much a call to mourning and ascetic practices as it is a call to partake in a prophetic event that is breaking into the life of the world. When the story of Jonah tells of the need for repentance, the purpose is not to have the king and the people clothe themselves in sackcloth and ashes; the point is that they change their misguided ways: “they turned from their evil way.” In Hebrew, the word for “conversion” (shub) literally means to retrace your footsteps, which involves a turning around and going back the way you came, thus “undoing” the path you’re presently on.

Likewise, when the first sentence of Jesus in the Gospel of Mark involves the word “repent,” it is both a call to turn away from the alienation that has made us strangers to ourselves and a call to turn toward God. It is as if Jesus is saying, “Look, folks! The road you’ve chosen for yourselves, and persist on taking, leads nowhere. The way to life, the way to the kingdom of God goes in the opposite direction.”

Whether any of us individually feel or acknowledge that there are “things” in our lives we need to repent of, the concern of God in our Scriptures today has to do with our honesty in the task of overcoming our self-deception with regard to “the road” we believe we’re on in life. The culture we’re immersed in won’t help us out here—there’s too much money to be made by cultivating self-deception through indulging and dulling our senses through over stimulation!

When Paul states that “the world in its present form is passing away,” the honesty of my response to the call of repentance will determine whether this is Good News for me.

Money Plus Oneself

Over a hundred years ago, a young women schoolteacher attended worship and heard a sermon which focused on the need for missionaries. When the time for the offering came, the young women placed $10.00 on the plate and a note which read: “I give $10.00 and Myself, Mary I McClellan.

God surely took notice of Mary’s gift and vow. It was not long afterward that she met and married a young man, James W. Lambuth. In 1853 they were sent by their denomination to China. The two missionaries founded an orphanage for homeless children, a Christian school for girls, and the Lambuth Bible School. The gift of “$10.00 and myself” resulted in great work for Christ in a very needy land.

Only God knows what can happen when we not only give our gift, but ourselves as well.

Follow the Leader

I used to feel guilty I wasn’t like the first apostles, ready to drop everything and run after Jesus. I know how many attachments I tend to hang onto, even when I think I’m “letting go and letting God.”

And yet if you read farther in the gospels, it’s clear the apostles also still had a lot of learning to do as they became disciples. They often misunderstood Jesus. They tried to block people, even children, from getting near him. They jockeyed with each other for prime position next to Jesus (not realizing that getting next to Jesus meant getting next to the cross!). Peter even publicly denied knowing him. Seeing that, I’m somehow relieved.

When Jesus calls to each of us, “Come, follow me,” we can be assured that is simply the first of many steps along the way. Sometimes we may falter, sometimes we will be strong. Sometimes we will follow closely, sometimes we will get lost. In any case, we know we can always find the way. Just listen for the one who keeps beckoning, “Come, follow me.”

Hans Christoffersen
The first disciples of Jesus in today’s Gospel left their work and their daily routines to follow him. They abandoned their livelihoods, familiar surroundings and the lives to which they had become accustomed to be closer to him. The good steward finds ways to be removed from what may be a comfortable existence or daily routine in order to serve the Lord more faithfully. All too often, out of fear, insecurity or even selfishness, we refuse to leave the safety of the little world we have created for ourselves in order to hear the Lord’s call and be challenged by his Gospel. Perhaps we should reflect on what comforts we need to sacrifice in order to be better stewards of God’s mercy, compassion and hospitality he planted within us.

Medical Missions Meeting

Monday, February 5th
9:00 AM - Gathering Place

On Monday, February 5, 2018 beginning at 9:00 a.m. in the Gathering Place, we will be working on creating new lap throws for our homebound parishioners.

We have depleted our inventory of lap throws and we need your help to make more. We need lap throws throughout the year as our deacons will take them to our parishioners.

We could use more lap throws if you can knit or crochet. Please consider making one or two for us. This is a great way to use up all the all your extra yarn. It needs to be approximately either 36” by 36” or 36” by 40”. It can be any pattern. Any questions please call Clara Christiaens at 630-971-1702. If you can’t help this month, our next meeting will be Monday, March 5, 2018 at 9:00 a.m. in the Gathering Place.

Thank you helping the Medical Missions to help the homebound with a lap throw. Our homebound parishioners thank you.

NEW PARISHIONERS: We are happy to welcome new members to our community, and encourage you to register either in person at the Rectory, or register online through our website, www.stmarygostyn.org.

BAPTISMS: St. Mary of Gostyn offers baptismal preparation sessions on a monthly basis. If this is your first child or it has been more than five years since you attended a baptismal preparation session at St. Mary’s or another parish, you will need to participate in a session before you can receive a date for your baby’s baptism.

Parents are the first and primary educators in the practice of the Faith. Godparents play an important role in the faith life of your child. While considering godparents for your child, be aware that at least one must be a baptized and confirmed Catholic who is active in his/her faith. Please call the parish office at 630-969-1063 to register for a preparation class and to schedule a baptismal date.

BECOMING A CATHOLIC: The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process of welcoming and preparing adults for the Sacraments of Initiation - Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation - for full membership in the Catholic Church. Unbaptized adults, adults baptized in another Christian faith, and baptized Catholics with little or no formal religious education are invited to participate. Please call the rectory for further information.

ANNULMENTS: We are available to help anyone who is in need of information about how to apply for an annulment. Please contact the rectory at (630)969-1063.

LITURGY of HOURS: Morning Prayer (Lauds) is prayed Monday through Saturday following the morning liturgies.

SACRAMENT of ANOINTING: The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is available at regularly scheduled liturgies throughout the year, or by appointment. You may ask the presiding priest before any Mass for an anointing. Communal Anointing Masses are held on the 1st Saturday of the month in August, December and April at the 8:00 AM Mass.

The Eucharist will also be brought to those who are ill, upon request. Please notify the Rectory if members of your family are in the hospital or homebound.

FUNERALS: Arrangements are usually made by the Funeral Home or by a family member. A member of our Bereavement team will meet with you to plan the Funeral Liturgy. Eulogies can be given at the Wake Service, Interment at the Cemetery or at the Funeral Luncheon, but not at the Mass of Christian Burial.

MARRIAGES: Arrangements should be made at least six months in advance to provide ample time for preparation of this sacrament.

PRAYER GROUPS: Monday evenings at 7:15 PM in the Parish Center; Tuesday evenings at 6:30 PM in the Parish Center chapel.

ROSARY DEVOTION: Monday through Saturday, 7:30 AM in the church; Rosary will begin at 6:30 PM on Monday evenings in the church.

RECONCILIATION: Confessions are heard Saturday, 3:30 to 4:30 PM in church. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is also available by appointment. Please call the Rectory (630-969-1063) to arrange to have your confession heard by a priest.
