Sixth Sunday of Easter

Is there still room for such a thing as friendship in our modern society? This may seem a strange question to ask, and we may, rather indignantly, spontaneously answer: “Of course there is!” But it doesn’t take too many of the “human interest” stories that the media are so fond of sharing with us to make us wonder. By now, we have pretty much come to accept as “natural” that the worlds of business and politics are characterized by a cut-throat mentality where envy and rivalry make “friends” take “friends” to court. Many of us have lots of “friends” in our address books, but are the majority of them truly more than acquaintances? We may spend quite a bit of time with some of them; we know their way of thinking, we can count on them to help us in a pinch, etc. But is there the confidence of mutually entrusting and sharing our inner fears and longings with each other?

So what is friendship, and where do we find it? At the least, a friend is someone who affirms me in being who I am. A friend is someone with whom I feel free to be who I am. Yet, friendship is more than freedom: it is a relationship of trust, and, for that reason, friendships are not made, they are found; they are based not on human will, but on the gift of grace. In friendship, we “find” ourselves, realizing—as Saint Augustine put it—that “a true friend is someone whom my soul cannot be without!”

More than anywhere else, we find our true selves when we realize we have been chosen by Jesus to be his friends. If we surrender ourselves to his friendship, we will experience a trust and confidence in God’s love that sets us free from anything that could otherwise enslave us to envy and rivalry. As a friend of God, we will—like Moses—be able to speak with boldness to God “so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name.” In itself, this sounds very “nice,” but it is actually a challenge “to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last.” When God calls us to life, holiness, and intimacy, it is not apart from others, but through relating to others in body, mind, and soul.

Seeing Jesus in the face of another is to see our true friend whom our souls cannot be without!

ST. MARY’S MINISTRY TO THE HOMEBOUND SPRING MEETING

Wednesday, May 9, 2018
at 7:00 PM
Location: Parish Center Underground

We are in great need of new ministers!
Anyone who is interested is welcome to attend.
Otherwise, please contact
Gail Miskowicz-Retz at 630-852-5347.

Medical Missions

On Monday, May 7, 2018 beginning at 9:00 a.m. in the Gathering Place, we will be working on creating new lap throws for our homebound parishioners. We have depleted our inventory of lap throws and we need your help to make more lap throws. We need lap throws throughout the year as our deacons will take them to our parishioners. If you need a pattern or some yarn to create a throw, we will have yarn and simple patterns available at the meeting.

Also, at this meeting, we will be starting to cut up sheets into strips which we then roll into bandages. We have a little device that rolls the strips up quickly and efficiently. If this is something that you would like to do, please come to the meeting. We can also send you home with a sheet and the device. These bandages are used overseas.

We could use more lap throws if you can knit or crochet. Please consider making a lap throw for us. This is a great way to use up all the all your extra yarn. It needs to be approximately either 36” by 36” or 36” by 40”. It can be any pattern. Any questions please call Kay Papineau at 630-963-4617. If you can’t help this month, please watch the bulletin as we may have a June meeting.

Thank you helping the Medical Missions to help the homebound with a lap throw and overseas missionaries with bandages.

College Bound? Decision Done? Let us know about it...

Heading off to college? Stay connected! Many university campuses have a Newman Center or Campus Ministry. St Mary’s and the Diocese of Joliet partnered with Newman Connection to register graduates as they head off to college. An easy, no cost resource connects high school graduates with Catholic Campus Ministries at universities and colleges across the US. Campus ministers then reach out to incoming students from our parish inviting them to social and faith based events that build relationships and nurture faith. The only registration information needed is student’s name and college choice.

Teachings of the Catholic Church
Caring for People at the End of Life

Although the diseases we face and the treatments available to us have changed, Catholic teaching regarding care at the end of life has remained remarkably durable throughout the ages...The reason for this durability is that the tradition does not speak about specific technological remedies or interventions as being “ordinary” or “extraordinary,” but rather asks whether a given medical treatment is burdensome or beneficial to the patient. As Pope Pius XII explained, the distinction offers guidance that is dependent upon “circumstances of persons, places, times, and culture.”

Topic:
The Thing about Compassion:
Setting Intentions to care for Another AND Oneself
All are Welcome

In the changes and challenges of caring for another, we can sometimes lose sight of the need to care for oneself. Together we will explore ways to care for others as well as ourselves, and in the process embrace the blessings and graces of caregiving.

Be nourished.

FINANCIAL PLANNING SEMINAR OFFERED

Do you have a financial plan? It’s not just for the wealthiest 1% you know.

Does your plan just include retirement and does it also address education, emergencies, major purchases, other financial goals, and insurance needs?

Only 31% of financial decision makers in families say they have created a comprehensive financial plan and only 35% are saving for emergencies.

Among the advantages of financial planning are: 1) defining financial goals, 2) seeing whether those goals are realistic given your proposed timeline, and 3) learning how to bring your spending in line with your goals.

As a service to our parishioners, we are hosting a Financial Planning seminar featuring Doug Towsey from Merrill Lynch. Mr. Towsey is a Professor of Finance and Economics at DePaul University and a Financial Advisor for Merrill Lynch. He has more than 25 years of business and investment experience as a corporate business executive, professor and financial advisor. He holds a B.S. degree in Finance and Economics from Indiana University and a MBA in Finance and Management from Northwestern University Kellogg.

Mr. Towsey’s presentation will begin at 6:30 pm next Wednesday, May 16, in the Gathering Place. Light refreshments will be served and there will be Q&A session afterwards.

To reserve your seat, please call our parish Advancement Director, Frank Glowaty, at 630-737-9621.

Funds are Matched With Catholic Charities’ Angel Fund

Each day at Catholic Charities, Diocese of Joliet we assist individuals and families who need an angel – veterans who have lost their homes, single mothers who seek warm clothes for their children, and seniors who are forced to choose between paying rent and buying food. Thankfully, we have found someone who is so special and generous... that he is almost like an angel on earth. This anonymous donor wants to team up with you to continue to help our struggling neighbors. For every dollar you donate, our special angel will match it – up to $50,000. Please be generous. This is an opportunity to help someone who will have nowhere else to turn if Catholic Charities isn’t there to help.

Please send in a donation by May 31st. Make checks payable to:
Catholic Charities Angel Fund
16555 Weber Rd.
Crest Hill, IL 60403

Donations can also be made at catholiccharitiesjoliet.org or by calling 815-724-1140.

Bless you for your support of Catholic Charities. Together we are doing God’s work – changing and saving lives! If you can’t send a gift, please remember the vulnerable and needy in your prayers.
