2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said to her, “Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come.” - Jn 2:4
In 2019, why not let Christ Renew You?

Regardless of where you are on your spiritual journey, the CRHP Men’s Weekend is for you. Discover how a weekend of stories, laughter, faith sharing and prayer could lead you to a better version of yourself. Here’s what some other men of the parish found there:

I went because I wanted to meet other parish men and to become a better man. It truly was the best self-investment I ever made.

– Tom Strolia

During the CRHP weekend I had an overwhelming presence of the Holy Spirit that has continued to this day.

– Richard Mason

I used to practice Catholicism all in my head - the teachings and the rules. But CRHP weekend opened my heart to the true beauty of our faith - and the friendship of Jesus.

– Joe Petrolis

Jesus’ First Miracle: The Wedding Feast at Cana

Jesus and his friends attend a wedding in the town of Cana. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine” (v. 3). At his mother’s request Jesus turns water into wine, thus sparing the host the humiliation of running out of wine. This is Jesus’ first miracle—a miracle that went unnoticed except for Jesus’ friends, his mother and the servers.

Even Jesus needed a gentle push from his mother to embark on his mission. When she mentions the problem of the wine, Jesus tells her it isn’t his time yet. Mary, ignoring his protest, instructs the servers to do whatever he tells them. She knows her son. After all, she raised him, and she taught him the virtue of compassion.

I don’t often think of Jesus as a child, but when I do I have to remind myself that he was a regular little boy. We know he never sinned, but if he was human he must have made mistakes. Like all good parents, Jesus’ mother and father had to teach him to face his problems, deal with them and, if possible, fix them. It’s obvious from this story of the wedding at Cana that they also taught him to be aware of other people’s problems too.

Compassion, caring about others, is an essential quality for Christians. Help your children notice the little things: to see when their sibling or friend needs help. Open their eyes to the details of life. Help them develop empathy for those who are hurting, including the unspoken hurts of frustration, embarrassment, humiliation or defeat. Teach them to ask themselves: How would I feel? What can I do? Answer those questions with them when they are young.

Jesus’ first miracle happened at a party because his mother pointed out that someone was in need. There was no big fanfare, no huge audience. Jesus responded, as he knew he should, as his parents had taught him. And his public ministry was launched.

FAMILY RESPONSE

Have each family member name a talent that each other family member has. The same talent cannot be named more than once.

PERSONAL RESPONSE

Compassion is feeling the pain of another. Acting compassionately is doing something in a positive way about it. How compassionate are you? Think of something that happened this week where you showed (or could have shown) your compassion.

Thank you for your continuing support and generosity.

In today’s second reading, Saint Paul makes a list of gifts dispensed to members of the Christian community by the Holy Spirit. Each gift bestowed has a specific purpose for the person for whom it is intended: wisdom, knowledge, faith, healing, mighty deeds, prophecy, discernment, tongues, and interpretation. Good stewards know these gifts are not meant to be kept hidden by the recipient but to be shared with the community and beyond. As we begin a new year, let us reflect on the gift the Holy Spirit has given to each of us. Do we recognize this gift? How was it intended that we use this gift? Are we being good stewards of this gift?

Activity Center News

As the time is rapidly approaching for the start of our project, we continue to ask you for your support. This past week alone we have received approximately $110,000 in additional commitments for the Activity Center, and for that, we are grateful. The Diocese is working closely with us to make a financial plan for this project that will preserve all the hard work that we have done over the past several years to ensure the future health and maintenance of our Parish assets, as well as allow us the ability to finance this project.

We have presented the details of this plan to the Diocese, to our Finance and Administration Committee and will make a presentation to our Buildings and Grounds Committee this coming week. We will be sharing more information with the Parish once we have a final version of the plan.

Thank you for your support and your prayers for this project! We have received funds from many of you as well as from some unexpected sources, all of which confirms our belief that now is absolutely the time to make this commitment for the future of our School.

Next week, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support to the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. To learn more about how you can make a difference, please visit www.usccb.org/latin-america.
Registration is now open for our biggest event of the year.

ALTAR FLOWERS

Are you celebrating an anniversary or special occasion? Would you like to memorialize a loved one?

Why not consider donating flowers to enhance our altar during Ordinary Time? Please call Pat Noonan, 964-4529, at least 2-3 weeks prior to your special event so an acknowledgement can be placed in the bulletin.

ADOPT-A-FAMILY THANK YOU

St. Vincent de Paul would like to thank all those who participated in the Adopt-a-Family program by buying gifts or helping to distribute them. With your help, we were able to provide gifts for 87 families from the Food Pantry and Our Lady of Mount Carmel. One of the thank-you cards we received summed up the sentiment of many of the families –

"Your generosity is very much appreciated and will be returned to you in abundance."

‘Alpha is an unqualified triumph.’
– The Daily Telegraph, London

‘What distinguishes Alpha is the easy-going, relaxed feel of the proceedings – that, and its astonishing success.’
– The Times, London

‘A novel approach to Christian education that has been catching on nationwide.’
– The New York Times

‘In my opinion Alpha accomplishes an incredible task, in making people interested in faith and in making faith relevant to the modern man…

– Father Raniero Cantalamessa, Preacher to the Papal Household

Alpha starts with a meal - a free dinner - then a presentation, followed by great discussion.

Alpha is for anyone who’s curious.

Over the course of the ten-weeks, the talks encourage conversation and explore the basic questions of life and faith in a friendly, open and informal environment. No question is out of bounds: discuss as much or as little as you wish.

Know someone struggling with the purpose and meaning of life? Alpha is a great way to invite others to explore our faith.

Looking for an in-depth study of our Catholic faith?

Fr John Hardon’s
Basic Catechism Course
Mondays 7:00 - 9:00 pm
Begins Monday, Jan 28th

This 17-week study is a clear exposition of the four pillars of the faith, as outlined in the Catechism. Here’s what some recent participants have to say about this Catechism Course:

“A rich source of information to help me understand my faith on a much deeper level”

“Even though it was a challenge, I learned something each week”

“This class helped me dive deeper into my faith, and learn why we do what we do”

“I now appreciate even more the beauty and richness of our faith”

There is no fee for this course but registration is required via the website or kjohnson@stmarygostyn.org.
Alpha Youth starts THIS WEEK on Thursday!

It's not too late to sign up and be a part of this course.

We will be watching our first video in the series: “Is This It?” and discussing the meaning and purpose of life.

Join us for walking tacos & food, games, an engaging video, and some real, honest discussion about faith & everyday life.

Rsvp to Claire so she can prepare enough food!

Last Sunday there was a great turnout at the March for Life Chicago, with roughly 6,000 people (many of them young people!) joyfully and peacefully standing up for the unborn, and showing the world that being Pro-life means LOVING and caring for ALL people of all ages! Let’s continue to pray for life. 😊

Join us for Youth Group every Sunday night from 7-9PM in the Underground! All high school students welcome—you are encouraged to bring friends!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During the weekend of January 26-27, our diocese will take up the national Collection for the Church in Latin America. Last year, when Pope Francis opened registrations for World Youth Day in Panama, he said, “WYD is for the courageous! Not for young people who are searching only for comfort and who withdraw whenever difficulties arise. Do you accept the challenge?”

You have helped young people accept the challenge to grow in faith by your ongoing support for the Collection for the Church in Latin America. Your generosity is helping the young people of the Archdiocese of Panama build relationships with one another, with their peers throughout Latin America, and with the rest of the world as they prepare for World Youth Day 2019. This is a tremendous event in the life of the Church, and these young people are now experiencing it to the fullest! You have given them the opportunity to grow as leaders and to develop missionary hearts.

Please be generous in this collection. Take this opportunity to share your faith with young people in Latin America and the Caribbean. Your support will truly make a difference. Thank you and God bless you.

Most Reverend R. Daniel Conlon
Bishop of Joliet

NEW PARISHIONERS: We are happy to welcome new members to our community, and encourage you to register either in person at the Rectory, or register online through our website, www.stmarygostyn.org.

BAPTISMS: St. Mary of Gostyn offers baptismal preparation sessions on a monthly basis. If this is your first child, you will need to participate in a baptismal preparation session before you can receive a date for your baby’s baptism.

Parents are the first and primary educators in the practice of the Faith. Godparents play an important role in the faith life of your child. While considering godparents for your child, be aware that at least one must be a baptized and confirmed Catholic who is active in his/her faith. Please call the parish office at 630-969-1063 to register for a preparation class and to schedule a baptismal date.

BECOMING A CATHOLIC: The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process of welcoming and preparing adults for the Sacraments of Initiation - Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation - for full membership in the Catholic Church. Unbaptized adults, adults baptized in another Christian faith, and baptized Catholics with little or no formal religious education are invited to participate. Please call the rectory for further information.

ANNULMENTS: We are available to help anyone who is in need of information about how to apply for an annulment. Please contact the rectory at (630)969-1063.

LITURGY of HOURS: Morning Prayer (Lauds) is prayed Monday through Saturday following the morning liturgies.

SACRAMENT of ANOINTING: The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is available at regularly scheduled liturgies throughout the year, or by appointment. You may ask the presiding priest before any Mass for an anointing. Communal Anointing Masses are held on the 1st Saturday of the month in August, December and April at the 8:00 AM Mass. The Eucharist will also be brought to those who are ill, upon request. Please notify the Rectory if members of your family are in the hospital or homebound.

FUNERALS: Arrangements are usually made by the Funeral Home or by a family member. A member of our Bereavement team will meet with you to plan the Funeral Liturgy. Eulogies can be given at the Wake Service, Interment at the Cemetery or at the Funeral Luncheon, but not at the Mass of Christian Burial.

MARRIAGES: Arrangements should be made at least six months in advance to provide ample time for preparation of this sacrament.

PRAYER GROUPS: Monday evenings at 7:15 PM in the Parish Center; Tuesday evenings at 6:00 PM in the Parish Center chapel.

ROSARY DEVOTION: Monday through Saturday, 7:30 AM in the church; Rosary will begin at 6:30 PM on Monday evenings in the church.

RECONCILIATION: Confessions are heard Saturday, 3:30 to 4:30 PM in church. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is also available by appointment. Please call the Rectory (630-969-1063) to arrange to have your confession heard by a priest.
