First Sunday of Lent

The devil said to him, “All this will be yours, if you worship me.” Jesus said to him in reply, “It is written:

You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve.”

The story of Jesus being tempted in the desert is familiar to Christians because it is read from the pulpit every year on the First Sunday of Lent. Jesus leaves the crowds to go into the desert to fast from food and to pray for forty days. At the end of this period, Jesus is tempted by the devil to use his power for self-gratification and personal gain.

Most folks will tell you it takes practice to say no to temptation. Consider Adam and Eve when they lived in paradise. They never had to practice saying no because they had everything they wanted. The first time they were tempted, they failed the test.

In this reading, we find Jesus in the desert tempted three times by the devil. He was physically weak, hungry and thirsty, and still he did not give in to temptation. He said no, not out of some superhuman power but from good old-fashioned willpower. Since Jesus is fully human, we can presume this was not his first encounter with temptation. Jesus had spent a lifetime building up his willpower by saying no to the easy way out, no to having fun at the expense of others, no to putting his needs or wants first.

How can we practice saying no to temptation? One way is by flexing the muscle of self-denial. Self-denial, or what we used to call, “giving stuff up,” has been a part of Christian discipleship since Jesus walked with the first apostles: “...[G]o, sell your possessions, and give the money to the poor...” (Matthew 19:21).

Lent may be the traditional time to practice self-denial, but it doesn’t have to be the only time. You can practice saying no to your sweet tooth or the urge to buy one more thing on eBay. You can choose to drink water as your only beverage for a few days. You can even skip a couple of meals one day to experience what it feels like to go to bed hungry.

By practicing self-denial once in a while, we learn self-discipline, an important virtue for Christians. Often learning how to say no to small temptations can be very helpful when we find ourselves facing larger ones.

Children’s Sunday Envelopes

We continue to have our children show their support for our Parish Stewardship Campaign. In the month of February, we received 18 offertory envelopes from the children with various monetary donations that raised $43.90. This money, along with previous months donations, will go towards purchasing the art piece “Jesus and the Children of the World”.

As part of the campaign, we also asked the children to commit to sharing their time and talents in their unique ways. Some of what they told us they did is as follows:

- Shared my toys with my brother
- Fed the dog
- Made my parents bed
- Brought in the groceries
- Set the dinner table
- Emptied the dishwasher
- Cleaned my room
- Kind to my friend
- Helped with the laundry

The second reading from Saint Paul to the Romans is a favorite of those involved in the ministry of evangelization. There are no “secret” disciples of the Lord. Those who exercise good stewardship of their faith realize that publicly identifying themselves as followers of Christ has a cleansing effect on their lives. Openly confessing Christ makes them more conscious of how they live their daily lives. Are we content to privatize our faith or are we good stewards of a faith that we share, make public, and regularly identify as a life in Christ?
Giving “First Fruits”

This Week’s Readings at Mass
- Deuteronomy 26:4-10 - Thanksgiving for the Lord’s goodness
- Romans 10:8-13 - The faith of the Christian

The first reading is one among many in the Old Testament with a “first fruits” theme. Moses instructs the Israelites to give gifts of thanksgiving in response to all that God has done for them. He is very particular that they should offer “the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me.” This model of giving “from the top” is the basis of a “first fruits” theology.

For the ancient Israelites, this meant offering the first grapes of their harvest, or the first figs from their tree, or the firstborn goat or sheep of the spring. From a contemporary viewpoint, first fruits giving means intentionally giving of your time, talent, and treasure. It might mean literally giving the first fruits from your garden to a food bank, or buying school supplies for a child in need when you buy them for your own children. It might mean offering your guest bedroom as a place of hospitality for others, putting your car to good use by driving an elderly neighbor to doctor appointments, or volunteering to coach a local soccer team. As we move into Lent, thinking about how we share our gifts from a first fruits perspective is especially appropriate.

Often, we begin Lent with lofty plans for how we will re-orient our lives back to God, grow into a deeper prayer life, or adopt new habits of self-discipline or generosity. Maybe that’s how Jesus felt after he was baptized and was “full of the Holy Spirit.” Probably he was eager and motivated to begin the work he had been sent to do: preach justice and peace, heal the sick, and offer freedom to those “imprisoned” by so many factors in their lives. But then, instead of beginning his ministry immediately, he was led into the desert where the devil tempted him.

These 40 days of Lent can be a time of practicing humility. Like Jesus, we will experience plenty of temptations that come our way and we will need to fall back on God’s grace to resist them.

BEQUESTS / ESTATE GIFTS

For many donors, the most realistic way to make a significant gift to St. Mary’s is through their estates.

You may provide for St. Mary of Gostyn Parish and/or St. Mary of Gostyn School in many ways, including:

- a codicil to your will
- an amendment to your revocable trust
- a retirement plan beneficiary designation
- naming St. Mary of Gostyn Parish or School the beneficiary of your life insurance plan
- donor advised fund or private foundation succession plan

Estate plans should be prepared by and with the advice of an attorney to ensure that your intentions are carried out.

This Sunday, our parish community will send our Catechumens, Randell Richey and Daniel Rosenblum to the Cathedral of St. Raymond in Joliet for the Rite of Election.

The Rite of Election is often designated as the “turning point” in the whole catechumenate. These individuals publicly declare their desire to receive the Sacraments. Their Sponsors, on behalf of the parish community, declare them ready to do so.

The six weeks preceding the Easter Vigil are especially significant for our Catechumens. Their long preparation for reception into the Catholic Church will be realized at the Easter Vigil, when they will be formally received into our Catholic Christian community, through the reception of the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation.

We ask that you pray for them in the final steps of their journey.

NEW PARISHIONERS: We are happy to welcome new members to our community, and encourage you to register either in person at the Rectory, or register online through our website, www.stmarygostyn.org.

BAPTISMS: St. Mary of Gostyn offers baptismal preparation sessions on a monthly basis. If this is your first child, you will need to participate in a baptismal preparation session before you can receive a date for your baby’s baptism.

Parents are the first and primary educators in the practice of the Faith. Godparents play an important role in the faith life of your child. While considering godparents for your child, be aware that at least one must be a baptized and confirmed Catholic who is active in his/her faith. Please call the parish office at 630-969-1063 to register for a preparation class and to schedule a baptismal date.

BECOMING A CATHOLIC: The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process of welcoming and preparing adults for the Sacraments of Initiation - Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation - for full membership in the Catholic Church. Unbaptized adults, adults baptized in another Christian faith, and baptized Catholics with little or no formal religious education are invited to participate. Please call the rectory for further information.

ANNULMENTS: We are available to help anyone who is in need of information about how to apply for an annulment. Please contact the rectory at (630)969-1063.

LITURGY of HOURS: Morning Prayer (Lauds) is prayed Monday through Saturday following the morning liturgies.

SACRAMENT of ANOINTING: The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is available at regularly scheduled liturgies throughout the year, or by appointment. You may ask the presiding priest before any Mass for an anointing. Communal Anointing Masses are held on the 1st Saturday of the month in August, December and April at the 8:00 AM Mass.

The Eucharist will also be brought to those who are ill, upon request. Please notify the Rectory if members of your family are in the hospital or homebound.

FUNERALS: Arrangements are usually made by the Funeral Home or by a family member. A member of our Bereavement team will meet with you to plan the Funeral Liturgy. Eulogies can be given at the Wake Service, Interment at the Cemetery or at the Funeral Luncheon, but not at the Mass of Christian Burial.

MARRIAGES: Arrangements should be made at least six months in advance to provide ample time for preparation of this sacrament.
