Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.”

— Jn 8:6b-7
During our Farewell to the Gym celebration a couple of weeks ago, it was so exciting to see how many families came to “Put Their Mark” on the only wall that will stay intact from our current gym into the Activity Center project. There were so many stories to share from many generations. One woman thanked Father Stan with her signature as she was part of the 8th grade class (class of ’79) that first used the new gym. Therese DeSitter (class of ’72) signed the wall for her whole family and shared the story that her mother was the head of CCW and planned the opening ceremony for the Parish for the “new space”. Several alum families came to celebrate stories of how often they had wished for a “cafeteria space”, a larger gym, etc. One father of an alum is so excited to see the “dumpster” in the driveway next door. His hope is that his daughter, who just moved back to the area with a newborn baby, will want to enroll her daughter at SMG in a couple of years because of the renovation. Current school families can’t wait to have their children eat in an area with natural lighting, have a full sized gym that can seat the entire school for an assembly and not have to store athletic equipment in their garage! Whatever the age of the family, this project is creating lots of hope and optimism for our School and Parish in the years to come.

We know that this hope and optimism has helped us with our fundraising efforts thus far. As of March 30, we have commitments for $1,319,000. These funds are inclusive of current School families, Parishioners, Alumni, Grandparents of School children, and matching funds from many employers who have these types of programs in place. With $250,000 in savings and $177,800 from our Endowment Fund, we now have $1,746,800 to put towards this building project. While we are extremely grateful for all these donations, we still need your help to fund the balance of the estimated cost of $2,600,000. Please pray for us as we continue our efforts to raise additional funds. Many of you have waited to see if this is “really going to happen” and we are happy to say, “it has happened, the project is in process now”.

Help us move forward as we make many more years of memories in our Activity Center. There are details about the project on our website or you can call Terri O’Dekirk at 630-737-9621 if you have questions.

A Third Way

This Week's Readings at Mass
- Isaiah 43:16-21 - Promise of restoration
- Philippians 3:8-14 - Breaking with the past
- John 8:1-11 - The woman caught in adultery

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah speaks, reminding the Israelites that God—who brought their ancestors out of slavery in Egypt—can and will do marvelous things again. He gives them a reason to hope and to believe that God can still surprise them with unexpected new life. The passages creates a foreshadowing of Jesus’ mercy with the adulteress which allows her to begin a new life after her nightmare of almost being stoned to death.

This Gospel story is a beautiful example of Jesus’ ability to find a “third way” between two opposing options. At first, it appears that Jesus can either 1) follow the law of Moses and call for the woman’s stoning, or 2) let her “off the hook” and thus disrespect Moses. The scribes and Pharisees want him to choose one or the other so that they can either punish the woman or accuse Jesus of disrespecting their greatest religious leader.

Jesus finds another way to address the situation, however. He exhibits mercy that does not result in violence, but will almost surely bring about the woman’s conversion. Given the danger she was in, and then Jesus’ utter compassion for her, her heart would have been touched deeply. Like a thoughtful parent who gently corrects a child’s poor behavior, he doesn’t excuse what she did but asks her not to do it again. His response saves her life, and she is then free to go on as a witness to the power of love rather than vengeance. At the same time, the scribes and Pharisees, so eager to see another person suffer, find themselves quietly convicted for their self-righteousness.

Questions of the Week
- Jesus has a choice between showing mercy or justice here. Given the two options, which do you tend to move toward in your response to others?
- In thinking about the people and situations in your life today, to whom are you invited to offer Jesus’ mercy rather than the Pharisees’ judgment?

Water

Water hollows the rock not by its strength but by its constant falling. The life of grace, which water symbolizes, is poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit. If we open ourselves to the Spirit’s flow, we cannot help but to have our hearts hollowed to become a resting place for God's love. We will be filled with hope and can never be disappointed.

During this Lenten season we must heed God's voice and open our hearts, so that the Lord's constant call might wear away our hardness, allowing us an Easter of joy and peace.

Strong words come from Saint Paul in today’s second reading. He reveals in no uncertain terms that life in Christ is our goal. Everything else, he maintains, is “rubbish.” Junk. Trash. Garbage. Is that true?

Is everything else “rubbish” compared to deepening our relationship with the Lord? What about putting recreational activities ahead of attending Mass? Or preferring uninterrupted hours playing the latest video games or watching TV to spending time in a bible study group, choir practice or serving in a soup kitchen? Or keeping late hours at work over sharing the gospel with friends and neighbors? To what extent do we exercise stewardship over our relationship with Christ?

Penance is an Action: Penance’s are actions we choose ourselves in order to express our sorrow for sin and our desire to share more fully in the life of Christ.

Penance is an Attitude of sorrow for our sins and a determination to turn to God and away from sin. An attitude of inner conversion, penance reminds us that God comes first in our lives.

Penance is a Sacrament in which the priest acts for the Church and in the place of Christ to forgive sins. It is also called the Sacrament of Reconciliation or Confession. The Church obliges Catholics to confess serious (mortal) sins at least once a year.

The Third Scrutiny is celebrated at the 8:00 AM Mass this Sunday. It is the final Scrutiny celebrated with our Elect prior to reception of the Sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil. The Elect will also receive another Treasure of our Catholic faith: The Our Father.

Mark Searle, an associate professor of Theology at the University of Notre Dame explains that the story of Lazarus is the story of his encounter with Christ and his experience of the power of God to give life to the dead. For the elect, they are to see themselves in Lazarus and to find Christ summoning them to life through the mediation of his body, which is the church.

For the parish community, who journeys with the RCIA elect towards the Easter Vigil, these readings should heighten our awareness of that which keeps us from fully experiencing the life that Christ intends for us in our daily lives. Jesus calls all of us forth from our tombs—those things that oppress us—and invites us to experience the fullness of life through dwelling in the Spirit.

Lenten Music 2019

Beginning on the 2nd Sunday of Easter (April 27-28) we will be singing a new musical version of the Ordinary of the Mass. The Ordinary of the Mass are those hymns, and acclamations that we sing every Sunday of the Year. These would include:

- The Glory to God also known as the Gloria
- The Eucharistic Acclamations also known as the Holy, Holy, the Mystery of Faith, the Great Amen and the Lamb of God.

We will be using the musical setting called The Mass of Creation.

This setting music has been used in churches throughout the US for many years and it was revised in 2011 so that the words would match the new translations of the Roman Missal.

As we begin to learn these new musical settings, the cantors will be announcing the pages in the hymnals before we sing these parts so that you can begin to learn the new melodies. You can also listen to this music if you have YouTube. You can type Mass of Creation in the search box and listen to the music.

In our hymnals this music can be found in the Green Hymnals at #'s 377-381 and in the Brown Hymnals at #'s 871-875.

These parts of the mass are among the most important pieces of music to be sung by all. We in the Music Ministry are also encouraged and delighted when we hear the congregation singing along with us, all worshiping our God in song!

NEW PARISHIONERS: We are happy to welcome new members to our community, and encourage you to register either in person at the Rectory, or register online through our website, www.stmarygostyn.org.

BAPTISMS: St. Mary of Gostyn offers baptismal preparation sessions on a monthly basis. If this is your first child, you will need to participate in a baptismal preparation session before you can receive a date for your baby’s baptism.

Parents are the first and primary educators in the practice of the Faith. Godparents play an important role in the faith life of your child. While considering godparents for your child, be aware that at least one must be a baptized and confirmed Catholic who is active in his/her faith. Please call the parish office at 630-969-1063 to register for a preparation class and to schedule a baptismal date.

BECOMING A CATHOLIC: The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a process of welcoming and preparing adults for the Sacraments of Initiation - Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation - for full membership in the Catholic Church. Unbaptized adults, adults baptized in another Christian faith, and baptized Catholics with little or no formal religious education are invited to participate. Please call the rectory for further information.

ANNULMENTS: We are available to help anyone who is in need of information about how to apply for an annulment. Please contact the rectory at (630)969-1063.

LITURGY of HOURS: Morning Prayer (Lauds) is prayed Monday through Saturday following the morning liturgies.
